Jay-Z, Scarlett Johansson, George Clooney and a slew of other celebrities want to see President Barack Obama reelected. As for Mitt Romney? Well, besides conservative stalwarts like Donald Trump and Chuck Norris, the presumed Republican candidate also just picked up Jenna Jameson's endorsement.

"I'm very looking forward to a Republican being back in office," the ex-porn queen recently told CBS' San Francisco affiliate. "When you're rich, you want a Republican in office."

In 2007, however, Jameson described herself somewhat differently. "Yes. I don't like to label myself as a Democrat, but I'm certainly extremely liberal," she told PR.com.

"The Clinton administration was the best years for the adult industry and I wish that [Bill] Clinton would run again," she said. "I would love to have him back in office. I would love to have Al Gore in office. When Republicans are in office, the problem is, a lot of times they try to put their crosshairs on the adult industry, to make a point... There are so many things that need to be cleared up before f--king pornography."

"I look forward to another Democrat being in office," she said. "It just makes the climate better for us [in the adult industry]..."

Wondering about her change of heart? Don't worry; soon we'll get to find out why.

"I will be speaking my political stance on a few different networks next week," the 38-year-old tweeted Friday, as well as retweeted a fan's response.

"Jenna for VP," read the tweet.
