GXVE Beauty, the makeup brand launched by Gwen Stefani last year, recently made a donation of 1,000 GXVE Beauty lipsticks to Find Your Fabulosity, a 501c3 nonprofit organization that has, to date, donated more than 90,000 lipsticks to victims of domestic violence.

Find Your Fabulosity's mission is "to bring beauty, confidence and a renewed sense of identity to victims of domestic violence through the magic of lipstick." According to FYF founder, Sheryl Kurland "This movement is about helping these women to rediscover their feminine power and beauty once again – their Fabulosity – as they take the necessary courageous steps to rebuild their lives."

Founded in 2016, Find Your Fabulosity currently works with 300 women's shelters across all fifty states to facilitate donations. GXVE Beauty's donation will contribute towards FYF reaching their next goal of 100,000 lipsticks donated to women in need.
